

Mini HEB

The Mini Heb coffee table is a refined, smaller version of the famous Heb table, designed by Francesco Rota for Desalto. This furnishing accessory maintains the elegance and functionality of the original model, with a more compact design that fits perfectly into smaller spaces, without sacrificing the solidity and versatility that characterize the entire collection. The base, made of painted metal, offers stability and visual lightness, while the top, available in various finishes, is the focal point of this distinctive piece.

Mini HEB

Three-legged coffee table with a steel frame covered by a hexagonal-section brass tube. Supports for the top are made of laser-cut steel tubes, lacquered in ferromicaceous gray. The top is available in hand-spatulated MDF, wood veneer, or marble.
